

Assessment 07

Total Marks = 30

Q. 1. Short Questions:

(21)

(All questions carry equal marks.)

- i. How important it is to consider the function of a room when planning a colour scheme for it? And why?
- ii. Which colour scheme would you suggest for a room facing south?
- iii. Which type of colours in your opinion would be appropriate for a room which faces north?
- iv. How can we make adjustment of the size of the room by colour?
- v. Why it is important to consider natural light which a room receives when planning colour scheme for it?
- vi. Before completely painting a room with a chosen colour, why is it recommended to paint a sizeable area on the wall of the room?
- vii. Reds, oranges and yellows are known as warm advancing colours. What are the colours on the opposite side of the colour wheel known as i.e. violets, blues and greens?

Q.2. What is the importance of colour when planning a space?

(5)

Q.3. Which colours would you choose to give an impression of a cosy atmosphere in an interior space?

(4)