

Working With Patterns

Total Marks: 30

1. Multiple Choice Questions. (3)
 - a) The flat pattern method is necessary for the areas like;
 - i. Flowing designs
 - ii. Pants or sleeves
 - iii. Skirt's bottom
 - b) The draping pattern method helps the designer to;
 - i. See proportions and lines of the design exactly as they will look three dimensionally on the wearer
 - ii. See the proportions and design exactly as it will look on the trousers and sleeves
 - iii. See the proportions and lines of the design as it will look on the shirt
 - c) Pattern grading decides;
 - i. How should a pattern look like
 - ii. How patterns increase or decrease in sizes
 - iii. How the patterns are drawn
2. Define the followings: (9)
 - a) Dart, grain line, hem line
3. Define the followings: (9)
 - a) Selvages, length wise grain, bias
4. Explain step by step the following processes: (9)
 - a) 'placing the pattern pieces on grain',
 - b) 'Pinning and cutting out the pieces'.