

Assessment 2

Total Marks 30

Q.1 Short Questions: (15)

- i. What do you understand by the term 'human dimensions'? How important is it to consider 'human dimensions' when planning an interior scheme?
- ii. How can different contrasts be introduced into an interior scheme? How important are they in a design scheme?
- iii. 'Progression is taking an element and increasing or decreasing one or more of its qualities'. Explain the statement by giving at least two examples.
- iv. 'Too many disjointed elements can be disquietening to the mind's eye'. How can an interior designer avoid this in an interior design scheme?
- v. Why is it important to consider the purpose of an interior space when planning a design scheme?

Q.2. 'Circulation through a space is a crucial aspect of a design'. Elaborate on this statement. (7)

Q.3. At which stage of a design project should the services like heating, lighting, plumbing, electric etc. be considered? (8)