

Assessment 11

Total Marks = 30

Q. 1. Short Questions:

(18)

(All questions carry equal marks)

- i. When selecting furniture for a room how important it is to consider the principles of scale and balance for the furniture?
- ii. How can the environment factors influence the arrangement of furniture in a room?
- iii. How can a focal point created in a room?
- iv. What is upholstered furniture?
- v. How will you check the upholstered furniture for quality?
- vi. When inspecting like wardrobes, dressers, desks and bureau- book cases what would you see?
- vii. How is metal furniture checked for quality?
- viii. If a room is too small which type of furniture would you select for it?
- ix. If you want the furniture to stand out in a room. How would you select the furniture?

Q.2 If you want the furniture to blend into the background leaving much less cluttered appearance. How would you select the furniture? (06)

Q.3. How many types of upholstery are there in furniture? (06)