

Assessment 8

Total Marks: 20

Q.1 Multiple Choice Questions:

(04)

- i. How many stages are there in a design project?
 - a) Two
 - b) Three
 - c) Four
- ii. The second stage of a design project involves:
 - a) The designer's proposal and the client's agreement
 - b) Gathering information
 - c) Working up drawings in details
- iii. The initial meetings with the client not only establish the brief, but also help the client to understand:
 - a) The design
 - b) The whole process
 - c) The materials
- iv. At which stage of a project does a survey take place?
 - a) Stage one
 - b) Stage two
 - c) Stage three

Q.2 Short Questions:

(16)

- i. What is the importance of design analysis? How does it help in the design process?
- ii. What are the important points to consider for the delivery of a successful presentation?
- iii. What is meant by the term 'specifications'?
- iv. Why is the procurement schedule prepared?