

Assessment 8

Total Marks: 30

Give short answers for the following questions:

(21)

- I. What is meant by 'binary colours'?
- II. Grey colour is formed when black is mixed with white. Is it a warm or cool colour what do you think and how best it can be used in creating an attractive colour scheme?
- III. Which of the following colours should a stout person wear? Dark or light. And why
- IV. If you want to create an illusion of height and slimness using colour, how would you do it?
- V. 'Wearing black for a grey haired lady is the most suitable choice'. But how should she wear this in the best possible way?
- VI. For a person of sallow complexion which type of colours is best choice? And why?
- VII. Which types of colours would be more suitable for a blonde person's dress?

Activity

Collect fabric swatches for different colour harmonies. Also name the colour scheme.

Create a contrasting colour harmony using at least three colours of your choice.

Design a fabric using at least three colours.

(9)