

Assessment 4

Total Marks 30

Q.1 Short Questions:

(15)

All Questions carry equal Marks.

- i. What do you understand by the term 'human dimensions'? How important it is to consider for an interior designer when planning interior schemes?
- ii. How different contrasts can be introduced into an interior scheme? What is their importance in a design scheme?
- iii. What is repetition and how it can be used in an interior scheme to achieve rhythm?
- iv. 'Progression is taking an element and increasing or decreasing one or more of its qualities'. Give two examples explaining this above statement.
- v. 'Too many disjointed elements can be disquietening to the mind's eye'. How can an interior designer avoid this in an interior design scheme?
- vi. Why is it important to consider the purpose of an interior space when planning a design scheme for it?

Q.2. 'Circulation through a space is a crucial aspect of a design'. Elaborate (7)

Q.3. At which stage of a design project should the services like heating, lighting, plumbing, electric etc be considered? (8)