

Assessment 14

Total Marks: 30

- Q.1. Short Questions: (18)
- i. Which type of waste is usually accumulated at most large events?
  - ii. Outline the main hazards posed by waste at events.
  - iii. If you are to manage workers and equipments at a large outdoor event, which areas will you pay special attention for waste collection when appointing staff?
- Q.2. Prepare a waste management plan for an outdoor event that will contain food stalls and will be attended by approximately 10,000 people. (6)
- Q.3. According to the personal protective equipment Regulation 1992 what are the suitable protective clothing and equipments for people working on waste removal? And who is responsible for providing these items to the staff? (6)