

Assessment 14

Total Marks: 30

1. Multiple Choice Questions: (6)
 - a) Tucks are folds of fabric, holding fullness and are used for;
 - i. Shaping
 - ii. Wadding
 - iii. Piping
 - b) Trimmings are the materials needed;
 - i. To finish and decorate garments
 - ii. To make garments more practical
 - iii. To sew the garments
 - c) Which of the following is correct?
 - i. Braided trims are made by interfacing three or more yarns to form a flat narrow fabric
 - ii. Braided are a chain of trims with individual motifs that can be used continuously as banding, edging or galloon
 - iii. Braiding is a trim having one decorative edge
 - d) In interfacing;
 - i. A layer of garment is placed between the garment fabric and its facing
 - ii. A layer of elastic is placed between the garment fabric and its facing
 - iii. A layer of wadding is placed between the garment fabric and its facing
 - e) Which of the followings is correct?
 - i. The interfacing should always be heavier than the actual garment
 - ii. The interfacing should never be heavier than the actual garment
 - iii. The interfacing should be neither heavier nor lighter than the actual garment
 - f) According to the method of insertion pockets are divided into;
 - a) Three broad classes
 - b) Two broad classes
 - c) Four broad classes
2. Write short notes on the followings: (9)

Pockets, belts, care labels
3. Explain the following terms as discussed in the module. (15)

Appliqué, banding, beading, galloon, medallions