

Assessment 14

Total Marks = 30

Q.1 Short Questions:

(20)

- i. How important it is for a designer to know about the function of a room before decorating it and which questions would you ask your client as a designer to establish the purpose of the living room before decorating it?
- ii. Apart from carpeting what other options do you think are available for practical flooring for a family living room?
- iii. How far a well planned lighting scheme is important for a fully functional kitchen?
- iv. Which type of flooring is most suitable for the connecting spaces?
- v. How important it is to establish the visual link between the overall scheme and the hall ways?
- vi. Why is it important to draw a floor plan for a room before buying furniture for it?
- vii. Which safety measures would you take when designing a room scheme for an elderly person?
- viii. When two people have to share a room and they both have totally different tastes how will you solve the problems relating to colour, pattern etc.
- ix. How far it is important that the ensuit bathroom scheme should relate to the adjoining room's scheme?
- x. Which basic equipment is usually required in a home office?

Activity

(10)

- List things that you have in your bedroom and also list things that you want to have?
- Measure your bedroom and convert these measurements to scale.
- Do you have enough storage space in your bedroom?
- If you are asked to create some more storage space how would you manage to do this?