

1. Multiple Choice Questions:*(05)

- i. Which of the following face shape is said to be perfect?
  - a. round
  - b. diamond
  - c. oval
- ii. In order to give an effect of length to a round - shaped face, apply shader over the...
  - a. cheeks and forehead
  - b. angles of jaw and temple areas
  - c. chin and forehead
- iii. How can you best apply corrective make-up for round eyes?
  - a. by applying dark shades to the inner and light to the outer eyelids
  - b. by applying dark shades to the outer eyelid, and highlighting under the brow
  - c. by applying light matt eye shadow
- iv. How would you apply the corrective make - up for close - set eyes?
  - a. light colours to the inner and dark to the outer portion of the eyelids
  - b. dark colours to the inner and light to the outer portion of the eyelids
  - c. light colours on the eyelids
- v. While applying corrective make - up for short thin nose, apply
  - a. blusher to the sides of the nose
  - b. highlighter to the sides of the nose
  - c. shader to the sides of the nose
- vi. How would you apply corrective make - up on a double chin?
  - a. by applying shader to the centre of the chin and blending it to the jaw
  - b. by applying highlighter to the chin
  - c. by applying shader to the jaw bone
- vii. How would you apply corrective make - up for a thick neck?
  - a. by applying highlighter on both sides of the neck
  - b. by applying shader to both sides of the neck
  - c. by applying blusher to the sides of the neck

- viii. How are striplashes are applied:
- a. by leaving some space on both corners of the eye
  - b. from one corner to the other corner of the eye
  - c. at the centre of real lashes
- ix. While applying evening make - up, always keep in mind the lighting in which the client will be seen, because:
- a. for strong light you will need to do light make up
  - b. colours of the make-up seem different in different lights
  - c. for strong lights you will apply strong make up
- x. For photographic make – up, keep foundation as:
- a. strong as possible
  - b. as light as possible
  - c. as dark as possible

2. Subjective Questions*(21)

All questions carry equal marks.

- i. Mrs. Jones is preparing for her daughter's wedding and comes for a pre-wedding make - up practice. Her eye brows are thick and her eyes are quite small. What would you recommend?
- ii. How is corrective make - up applied to wide - set and close - set eyes?
- iii. How would you contour a client with a round - shaped face?
- iv. Why is the position of the client important while doing her make - up?
- v. How would you apply corrective make - up for the following problems:
  - Thick neck
  - Thin neck
  - Wide neck Wide jaw Double chin
- vi. In makeup application, what must you remember when applying the following cosmetic?
  - Foundation
  - Concealer
  - Face powder
  - Blusher
  - Lip liner
  - Eye shadows
  - Mascara
- vii. While applying photographic make - up which points must be remembered?

3. What is the difference between day and evening make - up?*(4)